PIETRO CESARE MARANI: LEONARDO DA VINCI AND THE UNITY OF KNOWLEDGE

Professor Marani will hold a lectio magistralis presenting recent studies on Leonardo and on the conception of unitary knowledge. Second event of the cultural program linked to the exhibition Confluence, exploring the foundations of the unity of culture at the origin of the Museum's establishment and of its contemporary mission.

Welcome greetings: Fiorenzo Galli, General Director of the Museum.

PERMANENT AND TEMPORARY EXHIBITIONS

FROM 6.30 PM TO MIDNIGHT

MUSEUM HIGHLIGHTS

Don't miss the chance to explore all our collections and discover our highlights. Collect at the entrance your copy of the "Museum highlights" trail and find out more about 20 unforgettable stories on discoveries, records and witnesses that intrigue us for their power and uniqueness or for their deep-roots in our everyday habits. To find your way in the galleries use the Museum map.

FROM 6.30 PM TO MIDNIGHT | OLONA BUILDING

"CONFLUENCE"

Conceived by the Museum for the XXI Triennale International Design Exhibition

The climate system of the river Po basin represents a case study on the territory and offers an opportunity for a shared reflection among different fields of knowledge on the relation between man and environment. The exhibition stems from the project "Studying the future that already happened", a project conceived by the Museum in collaboration with the Po Basin Authority, the Università degli Studi di Milano and the Università Milano Bicocca.
