	Libraries, Archives, Museums (LAM) working together Susanne Nickel, Sweden (Chair of Digital Preservation WG,) and Guido Vaglio (Director of Museo Diffuso della Resistenza, Torino) A short keynote, presenting a case of ALM (=MAB) cooperation in Sweden and particularly in the city of Eskilstuna. The intention is to discuss with the participants what is needed for cooperation and how barriers in thinking and administration between the institutions can be overcome. In the best of all worlds we will come up with a "Checklist" what to consider and what is needed for a successful ALM cooperation.
	LAM uniting information - WG Lido, WG CRM, Archaeological data WG Discussing the more technical issues of uniting information coming from different sources and organizations. NB: CONFIRMATION PENDING FROM THE CIDOC FACILITATORS!

	Museums working with audiences and Open Data - Jonathan Whitson-Cloud (Chair of Digital Stangards WG with Intangible Cultural Heritage Working Group) and Professor Maurizio Vivarelli from University of Torino. The facilitators will briefly present successful cases working with audiences as well as creating and profiting from Open Data. How these two seemingly different topics can complement each other. Participants are encouraged to bring up their questions and own cases into discussion.
	Cooperation between Museums - Maija Ekosaari (Co-Chair of Digital Standards Working group), Pirjo Hamari (Director of Development, National Board of Antiquities), both from Finland and Stefano Benedetto (Director of Archives, Museums, and Cultural Heritage, City of Torino) Italy There is a lot of talking about and ongoing projects of cooperation between Museums, Archives and Libraries. But do Museums co-operate even among themselves? What to do first to facilitate cooperation? This group will concentrate on strategies of successful cooperation between museums, present some existing tools and policies that are helpful. Short case presentations from Finland, and Nordic countries if time allows.
